Young Musicians Support, an activity of Dartington North Devon Trust

All the young musicians performing tonight have been supported by YMS and a portion of the proceeds from this concert will benefit this local charity. Children who have begun to show a special musical talent but whose family's finances are limited, are helped with the cost of lessons and instruments as well as being encouraged to broaden their musical experience with free tickets to classical concerts at local venues. YMS is also able to bring young musicians together for ensemble playing and arranges opportunities for them to perform.

YMS holds auditions every March and arranges several concerts and other fund-raising events throughout the year. YMS works closely with the North Devon Music Centre and is grateful for the generous support of North Devon Theatres. On Friday 8th October YMS is delighted to be promoting a concert at The Queen's Theatre when the charity's esteemed Patron, Imogen Cooper will honour us with a recital of works by Schumann and Debussy. Proceeds of this concert will benefit young musicians in North Devon. Tickets may be booked through the Theatre Box Office ☎ 01271 324242.

If you would like to know more about YMS activities or know a young person who would benefit from YMS funding, please contact Heather Shorten ☎ 01805 603386 or visit www.ymsdevon.org.
